

Chairperson Ms. Umang Sharma

Ms. Umanag Sharma is a dedicated social leader and philanthropist serving as the Chairperson of Krishnavi Charitable Trust. She holds a Master's Degree in Organic Chemistry and brings over 15 years of corporate experience to her leadership role. Prior to her social sector engagement, she served as a Director at INTERTECH, where she gained extensive expertise in strategic planning, organizational management, and team leadership.

Over the past five years, Ms. Sharma has devoted herself wholeheartedly to humanitarian service, working closely with underprivileged patients and their families. She has been directly involved in supporting poor and needy patients by arranging food, medicines, diagnostic assistance, and patient care services, ensuring that those facing financial hardship receive timely support during their treatment journey.

Her hands-on approach and compassionate nature have enabled her to build strong relationships with patients, caregivers, healthcare professionals, and hospital administrators. Today, she maintains excellent coordination with the welfare teams and departmental heads at Safdarjung Hospital, facilitating effective support for patients requiring medical, financial, and social assistance. Witnessing the positive impact of these efforts on the lives of vulnerable patients brings her immense personal satisfaction and motivates her continued commitment to social service.

Beyond her responsibilities at Krishnavi Charitable Trust, Ms. Sharma actively visits and supports various non-governmental organizations working across diverse thematic areas, including healthcare, education, women's empowerment, child welfare, and community development. Through these engagements, she continuously seeks opportunities to learn, collaborate, and contribute to broader social causes.

Under her leadership, Krishnavi Charitable Trust has strengthened its mission of restoring dignity, hope, and access to healthcare for marginalized communities. Her vision combines professional excellence with compassion, creating a culture of service that positively impacts countless lives.

"Service to humanity is not just an act of kindness; it is a responsibility that brings purpose, fulfillment, and lasting change." – Ms. Umanag Sharma
